Your brief in the above-case has been received. In reviewing the brief for filing, we noted the deficiency shown below. Your brief cannot be filed until the defect is corrected. Please correct the defect within five days and resubmit the brief electronically for final review and processing. See 8th Cir. R. 28A(b). If the resubmitted brief passes review, you will receive a Notice of Docket Activity informing you that the brief has been filed. Upon receipt of this notice, you have five days to submit the paper copies of the brief and addendum required by 8th Cir. R. 28A(d) and (g)(4). Please contact us if you have any questions.

  X   This criminal appeal involves a child victim or witness and is governed by the procedures set out in 18 U.S.C. Section 3509 regarding confidentiality of information and the protection of the child victim's or witness's rights. (See familial relationships). If you choose to redact the information in the brief, please include "Redacted" on the cover of the brief.

Again, your brief cannot be filed until you correct the defect. Failure to correct may result in the issuance of an order to show cause why the appeal should not be dismissed (for appellant's opening brief) or why you should not be barred from filing the brief (for briefs other than appellant's opening brief). Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us.
